The Story content:

On the day of his mother’s birthday, Little Bear Whorf wanted to give her a present. At first, what he could think about are only the things he like, such as marbles and beetles. Being reminded by his good friend, he realized he should give something that his mother likes. However, he failed to get anything that his mother likes, including honey, crabs, etc. Whorf had no choice but to pick some flowers for his mum. Getting home sadly, he was then amazed at what his mother said...
